

“Pedura 2022” – Organized by Clarkson University Sri Lankan Student Association

Event Name : "Pedura 2022"

Date : 18th November 2022

Venue : Adirondack Lodge, Clarkson University

Time : 5.30 PM - 11.00 PM

“Pedura” is one of the events we, Sri Lankans used to organize to entertain the audience with a soothing session of classical tunes. As Clarkson students, we wish to bring this refreshing experience to classical music lovers of the Sri Lankan community and also our friends of Clarkson University.

Let me give an idea about the agenda or the flow of this event.

Mainly this event consists of Sri Lankan classical songs (language: Sinhala and Tamil) sung by Clarkson students while a group of students playing musical instruments. Students will perform songs individually and as groups. Different classical songs are arranged according to a nice flow by the musical group throughout the entire event. One of the noticeable things in this event is, audience is sitting on the floor and most of the singers and instrument players as well. Also we would like to entertain the audience with Sri Lankan traditional food.

We would like to invite fellow students of Clarkson community depending until we reach the on the capacity of the venue. The google form to sign up and the flyer is attached herewith.

Thank you.
